The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Please be seated for the Lessons

The First Lesson Isaiah 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent,
and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest,
until her vindication shines out like the dawn,
and her salvation like a burning torch.
The nations shall see your vindication,

and all the kings your glory;
and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the LORD will give.
You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the LORD,
and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.
You shall no more be termed Forsaken,
and your land shall no more be termed Desolate;
but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her,
and your land Married;
for the LORD delights in you,
and your land shall be married.
For as a young man marries a young woman,
so shall your builder marry you,
and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride,
so shall your God rejoice over you.

Psalm 36:5-10 chanted by the cantor

5 Your love, O LORD, reaches to the heavens, *
and your faithfulness to the clouds.
6 Your righteousness is like the strong mountains,
your justice like the great deep; *
you save both man and beast, O LORD.
7 How priceless is your love, O God! *
your people take refuge under the shadow of your wings.
8 They feast upon the abundance of your house; *
you give them drink from the river of your delights.
9 For with you is the well of life, *
and in your light we see light.
10 Continue your loving-kindness to those who know you, *
and your favor to those who are true of heart.

The Second Lesson 1 Corinthians 12:1-11

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says "Let Jesus be cursed!" and no one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit.

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

Hymn 440 sung by all

"Blessed Jesus, at thy word"

LIEBSTER JESU

Please remain standing for the proclamation of the Gospel.

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Gospel John 2:1-11

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

The Sermon Rev. Paul Bennett

BCP 358 • The Nicene Creed Standing

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Parish Announcements

Confirmations: Bishop Smith will join us on Sunday June 26th for his visitation and to confirm anyone seeking confirmation. In order to be confirmed you must take a series of confirmation classes. If you are interested in being confirmed this June, please let the office or Father Paul know.

Sunday Morning Bible Study! We will continue to gather together for coffee and glazed croissants on Sunday mornings from 9:30-10:30 am. We will gather, do a quick “check in” with each other and then we will look at the lectionary readings for the week with special attention towards the Gospel of Luke. No preparation is needed, and everyone is welcome. Attend every session or drop in and out as you are available. Feel free to bring your favorite translation of the Bible or come without. The lectionary readings can be found at: <https://www.lectionarypage.net/>

Annual Meeting - January 23rd: We will have only one worship service on this day at 9:00 a.m. and our Annual Meeting will take place immediately afterwards. Due to COVID, there will be no food served and the meeting will take place in the sanctuary to help maintain social distancing. Members who want to participate via Zoom should contact Lindsay Monihen to receive the Zoom link and password.

COVID and Our Congregational Life: COVID cases are once again rising dramatically in our community. While the diocese has not set new standards or restrictions, we have returned to our stricter communion guidelines. This means we will receive in one kind, which is the fancy way to say that we will only receive the bread. We will also move away from the communion rail again and administer communion at the bottom of the steps to avoid congestion in the choir area. I know these steps may feel like we are taking a saddening step backwards, but I believe we have been careful and prayerful stewards of our space and each other. A few members have shared that they have watched our services from the parking lot so that they still felt connected. If you do that, please let the greeters know and I am happy to bring communion out to those who do not feel comfortable coming in.

A Christmas Thank-You: I want to say thank you for the incredibly gracious Christmas gift. To say it took me by surprise is an understatement. It was a timely gift because I am scheduled to go on the Diocesan pilgrimage to Israel in March. Your gift will help make this a reality, so on behalf of my entire family I say, “THANK YOU!”. There are truly no words to describe my gratitude, but I believe you will see it as I share my love of the Holy Land leading up to the trip and when I return.

Parish Office Nominations: Nominees for 2022 Vestry and convention delegates are posted around the church. “Thank you” to each of our nominees for offering to serve our Parish.

2021 Parish Reports: All parish reports for the Annual Meeting need to be submitted to the office by Wardens and committee or guild chairs by January 18 or ASAP. You may email them to the office at allsaintsportsmouth@msn.com.
